Conclusion & Remarks	Gender Sensitivity is the need of the hour. In ancient India women enjoyed a very high position but gradually deteriorated day by day. They lost their individual identity and even their basis humanrights. The educational institutional should play an important role in eliminating this gender inequality. It is true that achieving gender equality is not only women's concernbut the responsibility of our society.

The Guest Lecture on "Gender Equity & Gender Sensitization" has been successfully organized by the RVSCET Central Library, Jamshedpur, on 17th January 2024 at the Institute Auditorium.

Featuring distinguished speakers including Shri Sandeep Savarn, Dr. Anita Kumari and Dr. Nicki Shivastar, who shared enlightening perspectives. Dr. (Prof.) Rajesh Kumar Tiwari (Principal) welcomed the speakers. Dr. Anita Kumari (Assistant Professor, Botany Dept., Jamshedpur Cooperative College) shed light on the government's initiatives for women's equal rights, fostering strength & self reliance.

Shri Sandeep Savarn (Education Head, Prabhat Khabar) shared Shankar's success in minimizing gender - infanticide, valuing girls as symbols of prosperity, fueling women's empowerment.

Dr. Nicki Shivastava (Principal, Vivekanand International School, Jamshedpur) emphasize the pivotal role of education in overcoming challenges faced by women today.

We received a positive feedback from students. 177 students registered under NDI club event out of which 169 students & faculty member attended physically. The note of thanks was proposed by Dr. S.P. Singh.

The Guest Lecture was coordinated by Dr. Sanalou Pandey, Dr. S.P. Singh and Ms. Jaimala Shrivastava Sindi.
